

Fibreight Cradle

The Fibreight Cradle is MOB recovery device that has the versatility to recover casualties into many different types and sizes of vessels, and also serves as a boarding ladder, scramble net and stretcher. It can be operated by a single crew member and has been primarily designed for use by rescue craft, rigid inflatables, ship lifeboats and marinas.

Features

- Standard dimensions are 1.3m wide by lengths of 2m, 3m, 4m, 5m, 6m, 7m, 8m and 9m
- Bespoke sizes are available to suit the individual needs
- SOLAS approved
- Constructed using carbon fibre rods enclosed in flanged tubular webbing
- Compact and easy to stow
- 3 year warranty
- No annual servicing requirement
- Lloyds Register approved as a scramble net

